DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1- 18 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art taken either singularly or in a combination fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the limitations of the independent claims, in such a manner that rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102 or 103 would be proper. The prior art fails to teach a combination of all the claimed features as presented in independent claims 1, 7 and 18 , for example, which include, a particle for a display device having a positively or negatively chargeable property and the particles comprising nitrogen atoms in an amount of 0.03 mmol/g to 0.2 mmol/g (claims 1 and 7); and a pair of substrates facing each other , a particles group composed of at least two or more types of particles between the pair of substrate , at least one type of the two or more types of particles having a positively chargeable property, at least another type of the two or more types of particles having a negatively chargeable property, the positively and negatively chargeable particles respectively being of colors that are different from each other and at least one type of the positively and negatively chargeable particles containing nitrogen atoms in a predetermined content and the nitrogen atoms taking a bond formation reduction in aggregation between the nitrogen-containing particles and reduction in peeling of the nitrogen-containing particle from a substrate (claim 18) .
